Joel 2:23-27. Rom.8:22,23,28. Gal.3:3

1. Our wasted Years and Lost Opportunities.

2. Is there any way of salvaging the Past? Can any of the old bldg be used in constructing the new. Johnson's house
The Bible says "Yes" emphatically.

3. Mistakes can be sublimated into wisdom, the Past resurrected into a LIVING PRESENT
But only our religion can do this-thru h the principles of life which Jesus taught.
David, after grevous mistakes-"He restoreth my soul."

4. We need also to salvage our outworn experiences.
Some still hold to past religious conceptions of life.
Our child prayers and crude conceptions of God, need to be replaced by an adult ideal of an adequate, understanding Father.
We need a fresh experiences of the teachings of Jesus to restore our dwarfed years.
A fresh study of Jesus Way of Life restores withered and stunted ideals.

Down-and-outers not all in the bread-line
May take a shock or physical break-down to make some of us willing to learn

5. Three Yrs with Jesus better than 50 with Napoleon.
"I would rather have had only 12 mths of joy with my husband than 50 yrs with any other man that I know."
Better to live our remaining yrs in spiritual victory than waste them in pining for the past and regretting losses and failures.
We can get renew our minds

6. Back in the hidden corners of our lives latent powers, that can yet be awakened!

7. Many of us at the cross-roads- either to sink back into obscurity or or rise up to fresh spiritual vigor.
"I am the door: if any man enter in, he shall be saved (restored) and shall go in and go out and find pasture."

8. We shall never know ourselves until we make this adventure.
"Perverse and foolish oft I strayed
But yet in love he sought me
And on his shoulder gently laid
And home, rejoicing, brot me.

And so thru all the length of days,
Thy goodness faileth never;
Good Shepherd, may I sing thy praise
Within Thy house forever."

1. Many a man has made a fortune from the waste products of manufacture.

Good business demands that everything be untilized: good living demands that all of life be be used

The restoring power of Xty lifts it far above all other religions.

2. We are destined for perfection- then how can we be content with our past mistakes? Nothing short of perfection will satisfy.

God's redeeming Love can restore us to confident striving again for the Goal in X-J.

Thus we make all things work together for good- all things past, present, future.

3. Past glories cannot solace for present humiliation.

Cant glory in ancestry. Theirs is the glory, not ours.

A poor woman who had treasured some furs for yrs as a relic of by-gone days, wished to show them to a friend-moth eaten.

4. It is'nt Xty that needs to be restored, it is we who need to be restored

We dont need a new religion, but a new honesty in living the Sesus Way

We need a fresh forgiveness and a new start a new impetus
